

Recommendations for Full paper submission

1. Full paper submission can be done online on this website. Firstly, register for participation and then log in to submit your paper.
2. Digital files in the form of Microsoft Word of full paper (The full text of the article should not be more than 6 pages in the form provided are required to be submitted online for both oral and poster presentations.
3. Please designate your file name as: Proceeding _icst2016_ Surname_Name
4. Proofreading of the original manuscripts should be done before submission. The organizing team will not be responsible for any mistakes or errors found later.

Page setting of Full paper

1. The article should not be more than 6 pages and can download the template of full text description on this website or Sciencetific.net (<http://www.scientific.net/Downloads>), please see the Full paper template.

Remarks

- It is strongly recommended that, where appropriate, the paper should be proof-read by a native English speaker, or at least someone proficient in the English language, before being submitted so as to avoid the possibility of rejection on language rather than scientific grounds.